For your prayers -

- For schools: for teachers, staff and children as they take an Autumn half term break. Thinking particularly of Covingham Park, Liden, Nythe, Eldene, Chalet, Dorcan
- For those who are facing ill health and medical treatment at this time
- For those working in finance: In Nationwide and Zurich in Swindon, as well as those in London and the major financial centres of the world
- For our Ugandan friends: with thanks for their visit to us, and especially the blessing of Laetitia amongst us in Dorcan, and pray for their safe journey home this week
- For ourselves: that united together, we “act justly, love mercy and walk humbly” with God as we discern and follow His way for us in Dorcan.

On 31st October we are hoping to hold a "Light Party" (an alternative halloween party) at St. Tim's from 5pm-7pm.

This will be for primary aged children and a follow-up event from Holiday Club!

I would really love any volunteers that could come and help during the party (whether it's playing games, leading games or helping with food) or people to help set up for the party or pack away afterwards.

Please contact Hannah if you can help!

Also, if anybody has any fairy lights I can borrow, please can you give them to me labelled with your name. I really appreciate your support!

If you have a child that you would like to attend the light party please can you email their full name to_ hannah@in-school.co.uk to receive further information and to RSVP.

Thank you. Hannah

Firstly, thank you for your support and prayers as I recently travelled to Peru to complete the Inca trail. This was a long held wish for me - so was quite surprised to find myself getting very anxious the nearer the departure date. As I left for Peru, an inner peace arrived; I began to trust God and I felt very supported knowing that so many friends held me in their thoughts and prayers. I tackled each day, a day at a time, and although not totally without event I really did manage to enjoy the challenge.

A personal challenge is a fear of heights when the path is narrow and combined with a sheer drop - yes - 'The Andes' is that sort of terrain - however all was going well and I was coping with this particular challenge. On the 3rd day Darwin, our guide, suddenly appears to three ladies heading up to the 3rd pass (12,000ft) which 'snakes the side of the mountain', with the exclamation 'Oh look ladies what beautiful views and what a SHEER drop'. The response from us three ladies was in Unison 'No Darwin'; - I think he soon realised what he was saying was the last thing we needed to hear!

Thank you for your donations - the box is still to be counted and will be done after Brenda Fisher returns from her holiday; On line giving has a total over £600 and the box money will be added to this - I will write in due course to acknowledge the whole amount.

With Love and thanks, Brenda Robinson
